'A-Cannon to Aid Defense'

GIs in Germany to Train With Atomic Arms

STUTTGART, Germany (AP)—Emphasis on atomic warfare training for U. S. troops in Germany will be increased in keeping with developments in the United States, says Lt. Gen. Anthony McAuliffe, new U. S. Seventh Army commander.

Gen. McAuliffe, who startled a German commander and delighted the Allies with his historic reply, "Nuts," when asked to surrender at Bastogne in World War II, succeeded Gen. William Hoge as commander of the Seventh. Hoge is now chief of the European command.

McAuliffe is the first "atomic general" to assume command of the Seventh Army, having been an observer at the Bikini atom bomb tests. Talking of atomic training, he said:

"We plan to broaden the atomic training program, and will increase emphasis and modify according to information received from actual firing of atomic weapons in the United States. I am satisfied that from all data on tactical principles, information has been obtained for greater defense from an atomic attack."

There has been some atomic defense training among U.S. and Allied troops in Europe, most recently during fall maneuvers. In these cases men have been subjected to simulated A-bomb attacks.

He was obviously pleased with the assignment of six big atomic cannon to Germany, and commented that "they give artillery a tremendous additional wallop."

The new 280 millimeter guns, capable of firing both atomic and conventional shells a distance of 20 miles, are to be unveiled for the first time in Europe Friday. They will not be fired, merely exhibited.

"We probably will fire these guns in training, but only with conventional shells," McAuliffe explained. "Atomic shells would be too expensive to use in exercises.

"These guns are particularly potent as a deterrent to aggression. And as the stockpile increases they will become an even greater deterrent," he added.

He declined to comment whether atomic shells will be stockpiled on the continent.

It was disclosed that the A-cannon in Germany will be taken to Gratenwoehr in Bavaria, big U.S. training area, for firing practice. Gratenwoehr is 20 miles from the Czech border.

Stevens: Missiles To Help

Anti-aircraft Strengthened

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Secretary of the Army Robert Stevens said the new atomic cannon "will greatly enhance our defensive capabilities, which is why we have shipped some of them to Europe."

Stevens' remarks, in an address to the National Guard convention here, had interest in light of a statement earlier this week by Secretary of Defense Wilson.

At a news conference in Washington Wilson was asked if the development of new weapons would make possible any substantial reduction in the number of American troops overseas.

His reply was that he thought "it would in the long run." By that, Wilson said, he meant a "reasonable period of time."

STEVENS SAID in his prepared discussion of the 280-millimeter cannon and other new weapons:

"Ultimately, as Army guided missiles are prefected, they too will aid in delivering fissionable materials (atomic explosives) or conventional explosives in close support of Army ground forces.

"The important thing is that we have the gun now, and can give our field commanders the capability of using atomic explosives safely and accurately in darkness or in any kind of weather, if it should become necessary to do so.

"The anti-aircraft defenses of our great cities and industrial centers, prime targets for enemy atomic attack, have been materially strengthened in many ways, including the equipping of some battalions with the new electronically controlled Skysweeper (a 75 millimeter gun).

"THE FIRST battalions of Nike—the Army's new anti-aircraft guided missile—will soon be in position, and these deadly new missiles will greatly improve our defences."

In addition to replying to criticism of the atomic cannon as too unwieldly, Stevens appeared to reiterate the Army's belief that it no longer has to depend on Air Force bombers to hit enemy troops in the field with atomic explosives.

His reference to having the gun now—there are a half dozen in Europe — and being able to use it in darkness or bad weather obviously referred to the possibility that bombers under those conditions might be unable to hit an enemy accurately.

THE ARMY last spring issued some enthusiastic reports of the expected capabilities of the Nike guided missile. It claimed the weapon would almost unerringly destroy high speed, high flying planes. While no details of the Nike missile were announced officially, the weapon presumably includes electronic guidance machanism to locate an enemy bomber and then to "home in" on the plane despite evasive tactics by the plane.

Stevens, obviously taking cognizance of some initial criticism of the 85-ton cannon which fires either atomic or conventional shells, emphasized its mobility.

"It can move along a highway at 35 miles an hour, and across country with ease," he said. "It can be emplaced in a matter of minutes . . ."

IN A SUMMARY of Army strength and deployment, Stevens reported:

1. More than half of personnel, 13 out of 20 combat divisions, are overseas. Eight of the 20 divisions and 4 of the 13 were furnished by the National Guard.

2. There are "sizable forces in 49 countries on six continents." A spokesman at Washington said this included such units as military assistance groups, which usually number a dozen or so officers and men, in addition to big combat units in places like Korea and Europe.

3. "Although the personnel strength of the Army is slightly less than it was a year ago, we have maintained the same major unit strength, and our combat capability has been increased."

No Official State Group In Caravan

Cattlemen Meet Benson on Monday

Special to The Journal

OMAHA — The Nebraska State Farmers Union Association office in Omaha said Thursday that no delegates had been "officially selected" in Nebraska as part of the delegation of 500 livestock producers from 25 states who will descend on Washington to ask Agriculture Secretary Benson and President Eisenhower for price supports for livestock.

Delegates in the caravan, sponsored by the National Farmers Union and its state organizations, are tentatively scheduled to meet with Benson Monday. The Tuesday schedule calls for conferences with the President, and, time permitting, with the Senate and House Agriculture Committees.

AN OFFICIAL at the Omaha office, who asked not to be identified, said he did not have the names of any persons going to Washington from Nebraska. The official added that it was an "open caravan" and anyone who wanted to go was free to do so. But, he said, Nebraska "presumably would be represented" at the conferences.

James G. Patton, National Farmers Union president, said the union decided to sponsor the caravan because "working livestock producers have indicated they do not believe Mr. Benson or the President have had the opportunity to talk with men who have borne the full brunt of the livestock depression."

The NFU frequently has requested price supports for livestock.

LAST WEEK, Patton wrote Benson that because of his failure to support cattle prices "the light of hope and faith in your administration is indeed burning low."

The Farmers Union head, Associated Press said, termed a resolution adopted by the American National Cattlemen's Assn. at Denver as "symptoms of a pronounced case of split personality. The glaring inconsistency in the association's resolution will only serve to puzzle and confuse livestock men."

The 180-member executive committee of the cattlemen's association adopted a resolution opposing any legislated beef cattle price support or controls.

States to be represented in the caravan are Nebraska, Washington, California, Montana, Idaho, the Dakotas, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Minnesota, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Tennessee, Colorado, Wyoming, the Southeastern states and the Corn Belt states.

'Impossible' Operation Saves Baby

SEATTLE (AP)—A 7-month-old baby, victim of a rare heart ailment, has survived an "impossible" operation and is apparently on the road to a normal, healthy life.

Dr. Robert Tidwell, director of heart services for Children's Orthopedic Hospital, gave the details in the case of Jerrold Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Cole of Seattle.

Jerrold, born last Feb. 27, had a defect known as the infantile type of coarctation of the aorta, the large blood vessel carrying blood from the heart to the body. In this condition, a constriction blocks the aorta, close to the heart, so that blood cannot flow through normally.

In surgery, Dr. Dean Crystal opened the tiny chest and found the stricture in the aorta had reduced the blood vessel to the size of a pinpoint. The surgeon cut out the blocked portion and sewed both ends of the severed vessel together.

"We don't know why it was successful," Dr. Tidwell said, "but the fact that it was means that from now on babies with this condition will have a chance."

No More Rain Forecast for Near Future

The word rain was lacking in the Weather Bureau's forecast through Friday and frost is predicted in the west and north Thursday night.

Five Nebraska towns recorded precipitation in the 24-hour period ending at 7:30 a.m. Thursday.

They were: Grand Island, .01 of an inch; North Platte, .05; Omaha, .03; Valentine, .13; Lincoln, .03.

According to the bureau, partly cloudy skies and cooler temperatures are to persist through Friday.

Thursday night lows are to be 25 to 30 northwest and 35-40 in the southeast. Friday's highs are to be generally in the upper 50s.

The state high Wednesday was recorded in Lincoln where the thermometer registered 73 degrees. Scottsbluff had the state low, 31.

Hurt Officer Called 'Fair'

Patrolman Virgil R. Campbell, 31, of 2411 Lynn, is in "fair" condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital where he is receiving treatment for injuries suffered in a motorcycle-car accident at 17th and Q Wednesday evening.

Campbell received a dislocated shoulder, probable fracture and deep lacerations of the knee cap and a severe head laceratinn.

The patrolman told officers he was chasing two speeders going north on 17th when he collided with a third car driven by Noel G. Snodgrass, 18, of 1640 Sioux, who was making a left turn in the intersection directly ahead of him. Campbell said he had no time to apply his brakes.

Police later found the driver of one of the cars they said was speeding—Michael L. ChinRock of 1419 D, an 18-year-old University of Nebraska student. ChinRock was given a ticket for negligent driving.

South Africa Has Flood

U.N. Slates Report on Palestine

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. truce supervisor in Palestine, Maj. Gen. Vagn Bennike, came here to report to the Security Council on border killings in that strife-torn land.

Gen. Bennike told reporters the situation was critically tense, but not likely to cause a major world conflict.

British and American sources said a council session would be summoned Monday to hear the general's report and decide what U.N. action is necessary to restore calm.

Bennike's report is expected to shed light on the three-pronged issue before the council.

1. A U.S. request—backed by Britain and France—for a full dress probe into border incidents between Israel and her neighbors, including the recent Kibya attack in which Jordan claims Israeli troops killed 66 persons and flattened the village.

2. A Syrian complaint that Israel is endangering Middle East peace by diverting the waters of the historic river Jordan.

3. An Israeli counter demand that the council take up a charge that the Arab states violated the 1949 armistice agreements, engaged in illegal blockade measures and refused to negotiate a peace.

NU Students Injured in Iowa Crash

Special to The Journal

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia.—Mercy Hospital spokesmen, said none of four University of Nebraska agricultural engineering students hospitalized here after an auto collision belived to be in serious condition.

Of the injured, Gerald Flebarty, 22, of Hastings, was to be discharged from the hospital Thursday afternoon. Lewis Lawson, 28, of Lincoln, formerly of Silver City, Ia., who may have a fractured jaw, was reported in satisfactory condition, as was Robert Haupt 23, of Cortland. Condition of Bill Stout, 21, 3310 Orchard, formerly of Grant, was said to be good.

The students, all of whom are scheduled to graduate within a year, were returning to Lincoln from an agricultural engineering tour of Iowa industrial sites.

Officers told the United Press that the students' car was driven by Lawson. The collision was on Highway 6 about 12 miles east of Council Bluffs.

The other car is that of Mrs. Myrna Lombard.

Mrs. Lombard, 39, of Council Bluffs, and Mrs. John Bacon, 52, of Cumberland, Ia., were reported in "fair" condition at the hospital.

Sutton GI Killed In German Accident

SUTTON—Word has been received here of the death of Gerald R. Bauer, 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Les Bauer. He was killed in a motorcycle accident in Germany, where he was serving in the Army.

A graduate of Sutton High School, he entered service in October, 1952.

U.S., British Scientists Joint Nobel Winners

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—A Harvard University scientist and a German-born British professor jointly won the 1953 Nobel prize for medicine and physiology for their discovery of fundamental life mechanisms inside human cells.

The honor went to Dr. Fritz Albert Lipmann, 54, professor of biochemistry at Harvard Medical School, Cambridge, Mass., and Dr. Hans Adolph Krebs, 53, professor of biochemistry at Britain's Sheffield University.

They will share the 175,292 Swedish crowns ($33,840) prize money.

Dr. Lipmann gained the distinction through his discovery of co-enzyme "A," an organic substance that plays an important part in nearly every biological process. Dr. Krebs was cited for his "wheel of fortune" explanation of how food becomes energy in living tissue. The two developments are closely related.

Both achievements were described by Dr. Goran Liljestrand, secretary of the medical Nobel committee, as being "of the utmost theoretical significance and very likely to have great practical importance in understanding diseases and similar disturbances."

The award was the 44th made by Stockholm's Caroline Institute of Medicine under the will of the late Alfred Nobel, inventor of dynamite, who died in 1896.

Cloudbursts Kill 47 in Italian 'Toe'

REGGIO CALABRIA, Italy (AP)—Floods fed by cloudbursts swept across the toe of the Italian boot. By midafternoon 47 bodies, including many children, had been recovered and it was feared the toll would pass the 100 mark.

The surging waters covered farm fields and inundated towns and hamlets. Many of the dead were buried under debris of shattered homes.

It was a bitter blow for the poverty-stricken region, still suffering from effects of floods last year.

Torrential rains which followed the cloudbursts continued, making rescue operations difficult. The prefect of Reggio Calabria, capital of the region, called for helicopters to aid in the rescue work.

EIGHT RIVERS in Reggio Calabria Province swept over their banks, flooding thousands of acres of farmland. Violent rains continued to pour down on the stricken area.

Landslides and the raging flood waters cut highways at many points. Telegraph, telephone and power lines were down.

In Rome, the interior ministry said all available rescue units, including troops, have set out for the scene of the floods.

Baby 'Victim Of Exposure'

A premature baby boy, whose body was found in roadside bushes three miles south of the State Hospital Wednesday, apparently died from exposure and lack of proper care at birth.

Deputy Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele said that an autopsy showed that the baby was live-born but probably died a short time later. There was no evidence of any violence or injury.

Three rabbit hunters discovered the body. It was wrapped in a blood-stained sheet, newspapers, and encased in a brown paper sack. The blood was fresh.

The hunters, Ted Hikes of 1046 Dawes; Bill Hikes of 102 West A, and Arthur J. Feldt of 137 B, called the sheriff's office.

A search for the mother of the child is now in progress.

Lincolnite's Account Helps Medal Winner

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thanks partly to an eye-witness account of a Lincoln, Neb., soldier, the Army has awarded its 66th Medal of Honor for gallantry in Korea to Pfc. Ernest E. West of Wurtland, Ky.

Pvt. Melvin H. Obermueller of Rt. 3, Lincoln, was, like West, a member of the 14th Regiment, 25th Division.

West was credited with saving three ambushed comrades. He lost an eye and risked his life doing so.

Petition Opposes Red China in U.N.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A petition signed by 212 prominent Americans and strongly opposing the admission of Communist China to the United Nations has been presented to President Eisenhower.

Charles Edison, former secretary of the Navy and the governor of New Jersey, presented it. He said a similar petition will be circulated among the public in the hope of getting one million signatures.

'Crosby Right' Typical North Platte Reaction

By CLARKE THOMAS
Journal Capitol Reporter

"North Platte knows deep down in its heart that Gov. Crosby is right; it's just a hard pill to swallow."

So said a North Platte attorney, leaving the Junior High auditorium after Gov. Robert Crosby faced 1,500 "home town folks" who were disturbed because Crosby had helped order a 207 per cent raise in their real estate tax assessments.

Another Story on Page 15

And this seemed typical of the reaction of the crowd which came in a frankly critical mood and heard the governor tell them:

"I am telling you now that what we (the State Board of Equalization) did was just as right and honest as any thing I ever did in my life."

That Crosby was even able to get a vote of applause at the end of the meeting was a tribute.

For to observers on the scene the meeting had all the appearance of being filled with obstacles.

A FRIEND of Crosby's said that at least half the committee which arranged the meeting had been on the side against him in a mayoralty dispute a few years ago.

The first dozen questions fired at Crosby during the questioning period were reportedly written out ahead of time by his critics on the committee. They were filled with legal phrases and quotes from Crosby speeches.

And a resolution calling for a special session had been written up ahead of time.

But when Gerald Gentleman, moderator of the meeting, got an inconclusive vote on whether such a session could be called he said he would not read the resolution and immediately adjourned the meeting.

FOR THE GOVERNOR to get even a draw marked a considerable achievement considering the fact that two state senators —Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff and Harry Pizer of North Platte —all evening asked him to call a special session.

Afterwards a man who identified himself as a Lincoln County rancher told a reporter, "The governor had to follow the Supreme Court ruling (calling for uniform assessments), I guess."

A Courthouse official echoed, "The governor is right. They'll all see it in the long run. But I don't think people know what to do in the future."

From a school teacher came the comment, "What the people want is to go back to last year's assessments. But that's done."

An office worker, however, remarked, "I don't think Crosby answered all the questions. I can't see why one guy pays three times as much taxes on the same kind of property as his neighbor."

A SERIOUS CROSBY—The governor points a finger to punctuate his affirmation that his tax stand was "right and honest." (Photos Special to The Journal.)

J. E. McGee, Dies; Guide At Museum

Children who visit the University of Nebraska Museum will no longer hear the "tour talk" that James E. McGee, museum guide, always made especially interesting to them.

Mac, as he was known on the NU campus, died Thursday at 72.

A watchman at the university until about 13 years ago, Mr. McGee became museum guide after he took time off his "police beat" one day to explain museum exhibits to a group of school youngsters.

The next day, Mac was asked to take the position of museum guide.

A Lincoln resident for 28 years, Mr. McGee lived at 5143 Prescott.

He was a member of the Methodist Church at Bennet, the Masonic Lodge and the Modern Woodmen of America.

Surviving are his wife, Grace; daughters, Mrs. Clara Downard and Mrs. Carol Andrews, both of Lincoln, and Mrs. Lois Lowe of West Covina, Calif.; sons, Everett L. of Lincoln, Joseph L. of Crete and Ralph E. of Los Angeles, and eight grandchildren.

2nd Ballenger Trial Asked

A motion for a new trial for Dean W. Ballenger, recently convicted by a Federal Court jury on a mail fraud charge and sentenced to three years imprisonment, filed by his attorney, Max Towle. A motion in arrest of judgment also has been filed.

The new trial is sought on grounds the indictment failed to set forth a crime under the laws of the United States, that the court erred in denying a motion for acquittal at the conclusion of the evidence, and that the verdict was contrary to the weight of evidence.

Ballenger was found guilty on 17 counts, five others being dismissed.

Commies Relent on Walkout

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The two Red satellite members of the Korean Prisoner Repatriation Commission ended a three-day walkout but there was no indication they had won their point —that anti-Red Koreans be forced to hear Communist efforts to wheedle them home.

The explanations have been stalled since Monday, when the Polish and Czech delegates left the commission after being voted down by the Indians, Swedes and Swiss.

In Thursday's meeting they apparently repeated the demand without success and the explanations remained at a standstill.

THE COMMUNIST delegates are forcing the point by disregarding the 14,600 Chinese who apparently will listen, insisting instead on talking with the 7,800 Koreans who have refused with a show of belligerence.

The Red reluctance to meet the Chinese may grow from the stinging propaganda beating they took in the first two days of interviews—only 19 of 921 Chinese chose the road to Communism.

After unsuccessful efforts by Indian guards to get the Koreans peacefully to the interviews the Red efforts were called off in stalemate.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the Repatriation Commission, said after the Thursday session that Indian troops are unable to produce the Koreans "at this time."

HOWEVER, THE 2-hour, 25-minute meeting was not adjourned but was recessed until Friday, leading observers to speculate that some new line of argument may have been presented.

Some observers have speculated the Reds may be willing to stall out the period without any more interviews—avoiding a worse propaganda beating—and then perhaps protest later that they never had a fair deal.

Meanwhile, the Army announced that Cpl. Edward S. Dickenson, the former prisoner who switched his choice from Communism to home, was flown to Tokyo Thursday. Dickenson is from Big Stone Gap, Va.

Special U.S. Envoy Arthur Dean was on his way to Korea to negotiate with the Communists on plans for the Korean peace conference.

Chest-Cross Drive Hits 60% of Goal

On the fourth day of the Community Chest and Red Cross united campaign, workers reported a total of $290,648 or 60 per cent of their $482,266 goal.

The amount reported Thursday was $44,503, with the advance gifts division bringing in the largest share. That division reported $25,134, a total to date of $161,698.

The employees division reached 55 per cent of its goal with additions Thursday of $17,855. The women's division, soliciting the residential section, reported $1,514 or a $10,841 total to date.

"We are striving for a 75 per cent report of our goal by Friday noon," Willard Townsend said. "If we attain it," the general chairman of the drive continued, "it will require hard work. If we don't, it means harder work next week."

Quake Rocks Islands

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—A series of strong earth tremors rocked the already quake-stricken islands in the Ionian Sea, in the Peloponnesos area and along Greece's west Coast.

Strongest hit apparently was the Ionian island of Kefallinia, where scores lost their lives and hundreds were made homeless in a series of violent quakes last August. Some damage was reported but no loss of life.

New Home Building Up

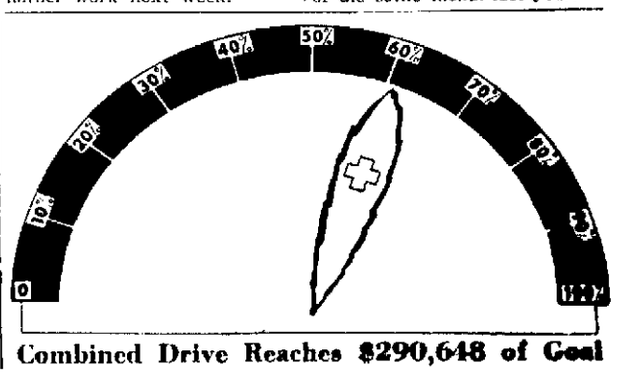

State Building Story, Page 16.

Residential construction, usually on the wane this late in the year, is still riding the crest.

Records of the city building inspector for the first 21 days of October disclose issuance of 62 permits for new homes to cost $416,435.

For the entire month of October, 1952, only 50 permits were issued for new homes to cost $321,400.

With 10 days remaining, this month is already 12 new home permits and $95,035 in cost ahead of the same month last year.

Combined Drive Reaches $290,648 of Goal

I May Be Wrong

By Walt Dobbins
Journal Sports Editor

When you consider that rival Big Seven conference football coaches have averaged only 5.67 years at their respective schools, the 16-year tenure of Don Faurot at the University of Missouri is all the more remarkable.

Faurot is currently the president of the American Football Coaches Association and is in the middle of his 25th season as a head professor of football at Columbia.

His Missouri teams have won 88 games while losing 58 and tying eight. He holds a 10-5 record against Nebraska. Between 1941 and 1950 his teams rang the bell for six straight triumphs. Faurot was in the service four years, 1943-46.

The Tiger mentor is the inventor of the "Split-T" formation, first using it at Missouri in 1941. He popularized it while at the Iowa Pre-Flight school in Iowa City and as war-time coach of the Jacksonville Naval Air Station squad.

It was at Iowa City where Bud Wilkinson, Oklahoma's head coach, became Faurot's most avid pupil. Wilkinson's success with the formation skyrocketed the Sooners into the national spotlight.

The "Split-T" in effect differs from the regular "T" with unbalanced line as used by Husker mentor Bill Glassford, in that the quarterback plays an even more important role as a ball carrier.

Saturday our Huskers will run into this formation with Tony Scardino holding the key to the Tigers' success through clever faking, running and his ability to hit his receivers downfield.

The fundamental principles of the formation are straight-ahead thrusts over a wide area; maximum speed and faking at the line of scrimmage. All plays become a part of one basic cycle including handoffs, jump pass, quarterback option play, running pass, fullback counter, quarterback sneak and the reverse.

THE AVERAGE FAN, until he becomes accustomed to the formation, will recognize it most easily by the quarterback option play.

Taking the ball from the center, the quarterback invariably fakes and then runs parallel to the line of scrimmage. He has the option of keeping the ball and running wide or cutting in, but more often is apt to lateral to a backfield mate. His decision to lateral or keep the ball depends upon the block made on the defensive end.

Husker fans who do not make the trek to Columbia Saturday will see almost the identical formation when Oklahoma comes here Nov. 21. If anything, Wilkinson has improved on Faurot's original idea although both mentors have been highly successful with the formation, depending upon the player personnel at their command.

Faurot, who doubles as athletic director as does Wilkinson at OU, has surrounded himself with a capable staff of six assistant grid teachers. They include Chauncey Simpson, John (Hi) Simons, Huston Betty, Clay Cooper, Harry Smith and frosh coach Johnny Kadlec.

Missouri is 114 Years Old

Missouri this year has an enrollment estimated at 8,000. The school is located midway between St. Louis and Kansas City at Columbia, a city of 31,500.

The school is the oldest state university west of the Mississippi. It was created by the Geyer Act in 1839 and first classes were held in 1841.

After fighting a constant struggle for survival the university suffered utter disruption during the Civil War. During this period the federal militia seized Academic Hall for its headquarters. The school was re-opened in 1865. A few women were permitted to attend in 1869 but it wasn't until 1870 that the bars were let down.

Missouri enjoyed its peak enrollment in 1947 when 14,071 students were enrolled. In all over 130,000 men and women have attended the university and over 56,000 have received degrees.

It is an excellent school and is nationally recognized for its School of Journalism.

System Chooses Huskers

By PAUL WILLIAMSON

HOUSTON —Two erratic clubs, Nebraska and Missouri which meet Saturday, should provide a colorful contest, with Missouri coming up on the wrong end of the score.

In major intersectional play, Notre Dame and Georgia Tech are the nation's headliner. Notre Dame gets the nod due to the consistency of its play. The Engineers are sometimes brilliant but never long enough to hold the Irish below a win by a touchdown.

In games that could go either way, Northwestern should take Pittsburgh, Cornell should be able to handle Princeton and Ohio State looks slightly better than Wisconsin. Texas appears to have a bare edge on Rice in the Southwest.

EXPLANATION. Team in first (left) column is picked by the Williamson System to be WINNER. It is also the HOME team unless its opponent in second (right) column is starred (*) to mean the expected LOSER is the home team.

Unbeaten Leigh Edges Orioles

ALVO—A first quarter blocked kick resulted in a safety which eventually provided the undefeated Leigh Panthers of Coach Jack Sluey with a 14-12 victory over the competent Alvo Orioles in a six-man football game here Wednesday afternoon.

Bill Hamernick and Leonard Wendt crashed through the Alvo line to block a punt and sent the Panthers into a 2-0 lead.

Leigh scored in the third quarter on a plunge by Quarterback Tom Kumpf and in the last period when the versatile Kumpf passed 30 yards to End Wertman.

Alvo scored on passes from Rich Morgaridge to Jim Hermance and Dick Clark. The first covered 43 yards, the second 31.

Middies Are 4th Ranking Defensively

NEW YORK (AP)—Navy's rising Middies are fast gaining a reputation as a team that can not only run up a score but can put the defensive brakes on their opponents.

While the Sailors drew nationwide attention to an offense that swamped Princeton 65-7 Saturday, the official NCAA service bureau statistics show they also rank fourth in both total defense and rushing defense among major college teams. The Middies have yielded only 165.5 yards a game overall and a mere 93.8 yards rushing.

Southern Methodist is the No. 1 club in both total and rushing defense by virtue of holding each opponent to 135.3 yards per contest overall and 77 yards on the ground. The Mustangs, who upset Rice with the aid of a goal line stand last Saturday, had earlier held Georgia Tech to a net of 33 yards while losing 6-4.

Yale, which leads the field in defending its end zone by allowing only 1.8 points per game, stands second in total defense with a 152.8 yards per game average.

Iowa is second in rushing defense with 77.8 yards following successive Saturdays when they forced Michigan to the air and slowed down Wyoming's running ace Joe Mastrogiovanni.

In the pass defense department Wake Forest is the most effective—allowing only 27 yards a game. Texas Christian, meanwhile, is getting the most mileage out of its punts—43.7 yards for each of 21 kicks.

Arizona, Washington and Louisiana State are the pass interception leaders with 13 apiece. Mississippi already has accounted for four blocked kicks—thanks mainly to the demon-like charges of guard Crawford Mims.

By CLARKE THOMAS
Journal Capitol Reporter

NORTH PLATTE—Gov. Robert Crosby won at least a draw after two hours of facing 1,500 citizens of his own home town, unhappy and disturbed by this year's tax equalization which raised their real estate assessments 207 per cent. Not only did he face an audience which was cool at the opening of the session, but the governor had to argue against the demands of two state senators on the platform that he call a special session of Legislature immediately.

Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff, a severe critic of the governor, shouted, "I demand of the governor tonight that he call a special session of the Legislature to set up a special election to see whether the people of Nebraska want to amend the Constitution to take the state out of property tax field."

SEN. HARRY PIZER of North Platte, a staunch supporter of Crosby on most issues, said he wanted a special session to pave the way for a sales tax. He added that "even if we don't accomplish anything we will have tried it anyway."

But Crosby said, "If we call a special session, I want to have the assurance that the citizens understand they will have relief on only 10 per cent of their property tax if we do take the state out of that tax and have a chance to discuss it first."

He said that for most Nebraskans the state tax amounts only to a dime out of each tax dollar. This is all a state sales tax would relieve them of in property taxes.

Crosby said citizens would still be faced with the problem of "honesty in property taxes" regarding the other 90 cents of the tax dollar.

Carpenter asked him point blank if he would poll the legislators to see whether they wanted a "sales tax" special session.

Crosby said that as governor he would want a few days to think over any such suggestion.

THE SHOW DOWN on audience reaction came when moderator Gerald Gentleman, manager of the Platte Valley Public Power District, asked for an expression of opinion on whether there should be a special session.

There was applause but only three persons—all three members of the committee which arranged the program—got to their feet.

When Gentleman asked how many thought that under the circumstances a special session would do no good, an equal amount of applause was given and about seven persons stood up.

Carpenter earned several bursts of applause as he criticized the 50 per cent assessments law and argued, "We are taking the tax away from those who are accustomed to paying it and putting it on those already overburdened."

BUT WHEN Crosby's turn came to talk he spoke in a low deadly serious voice, often punctuating his remarks with a forefinger pointed at various members of the audience.

He said, "I talk earnestly to you without embellishment and without oratory. I didn't relish the task as chairman of the State Board of Equalization of raising your tax assessments But I am telling you now that what we did was just as right and honest as any thing I ever did in my life. I didn't expect it to be popular. But if I come back to North Platte—and I may come back sooner than I had hoped—I'd rather be able to say that I did what my conscience told me than to pander to the public fancy."

He told his North Platte audience that what was done was done. He said that the next important step for Lincoln County is to see "that you get all your personal property with full returns at legal levels."

"When you get this done you will lighten the burden on real estate," Crosby promised.

HE SAID he knew only too well that many people in North Platte were having their tax bills greatly increased — "especially some of my older friends who have only a home and have no automobile or much personal property to offset it."

The governor said that if Nebraska was going to continue in the property tax field he thought two things should be done.

1. County assessors should be appointed, not elected.
2. Some system of prosecuting evaders must be worked out.

Before the meeting opened, a reprint of a Lincoln Sunday Journal and Star story was passed around, quoting Crosby's statement that assessors should be appointed.

On the bottom was the comment: "Do you want this. Under this Pendergast system you taxpayers could be given the works. Instead of giving lip service to local government lets keep it here."

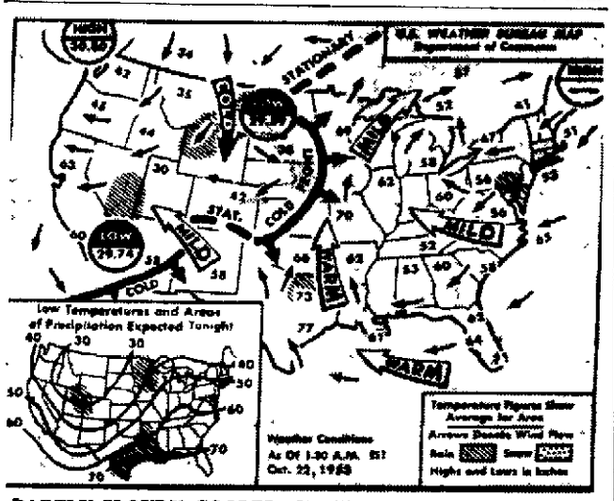

"It doesn't matter at what percentage you assess, just so you assess all property equally," Crosby said.

AFTER THE meeting, a reporter asked Crosby when he would make a decision on a special session.

The governor replied that he considered the deadline for calling a special tax session to be about the first of January. He said that 1954 assessments would be made up in mid-March, and that about two and one-half months would be needed before that time to get the necessary legislative machinery rolling.

Railroader Bill Owens, one of the local organizers of the meeting, said the local committee will give the governor some time to call a special session, but that if he does not, the committee will seek to get five state senators to ask the Secretary of State to poll the Legislature on the special session issue.

Football Player Breaks Leg; Held in Check Passing Case

FT. DODGE, Ia. (AP)—A broken leg he suffered on the first play of football practice, was just the start of trouble for Frankie Alonzo Carl, 23, of Sutton, Neb.

According to police, Carl Reported to Coach Connie Goodman at Ft. Dodge Junior College, announcing that he had just enrolled in college and that he played football at Michigan State College.

On his first play in practice, Carl caught a punt, was tackled and suffered a fractured left leg.

At Mercy Hospital here Carl was reported "doing fine." But the grid injury brought attention of the police to Carl and led to his being questioned.

Police Chief Fred Etzel said Carl told them he never had played football before except at Sutton High School, but that he had not been graduated from high school.

The chief said Carl was held for questioning in connection with checks passed at Algona, Ia. Carl was quoted as saying he also was wanted in Lincoln.

Construction Upswing in Sight

Construction in Nebraska has made two complete cycles since the beginning of 1949 and may be rallying again reported the Department of Business Research of the University of Nebraska College of Business Administration

There was a general upward trend in construction activity in 1949 and 1950 the report said but a peak was reached at the end of 1950 The cycle then moved downward until the spring of 1952

In February 1953 the present cycle reached its peak and since that time has descended rapidly

However the report continued it is possible that a renewed rally is now beginning

A shift in type of construction in the state was noted by the researchers who reported that nonbuilding types of construction have decreased in the last few years

In contrast there have been in the same period record levels both of home building and other types of building construction

Former Lincolnite Tells of Indonesian Visit

Indonesia is a young man's country, says E. A. Starch of 2042 Pepper, who returned from four months in Asia as a consultant in international work for the Ford Foundation.

"The country is only four years old and the men in the foremost positions in industry and government are very young. They have great determination to get under way," he said.

MR. STARCH, who has been with the Foundation about six months, spent 10 weeks in Indonesia, and will be assigned there again. His work was mainly with the ministries of education, industry and agriculture, and with the country's vice president, Dr. Mohammed Hatta.

He spent the remainder of the time in three other new countries — Pakistan, India and Burma.

"The struggles they are making to organize and get their elections under way are very striking," he said.

THE FOUNDATION has projects in those countries, such as assisting in increasing literacy, for the development of better international relations.

Mr. and Mrs. Starch plan to leave Lincoln soon and make New York their home.

Starch, a former member of the University of Nebraska's agriculture extension staff, was advisor to the Ministry of Agriculture in Turkey under the Point Four program before taking the Ford Foundation post.

Sunday School Lesson

'Drink Problem Is Essentially Spiritual'

The Sunday School lesson for Oct. 25 is, "The War Against Buyrant Alcohol (Temperance)," Isaiah 5:11-14; Matthew 18:8; Romans 13:11-14; James 1:17.

By EARL L. DOUGLASS

There is an honest difference of opinion as to how the liquor problem in this country can best be handled, but there is no difference of opinion that liquor has created in our national life a problem which is becoming increasingly serious.

Liquor is involved in from 20 to 50 per cent of all highway fatalities — that is, between 18 and 45 deaths every day.

Two passages in the week's lesson convey a sense of the continuing nature of this problem. The prophet Isaiah, writing about 750 years before Christ, gives a description of immoderate drinking and alcoholism in ancient Jerusalem.

Another passage taken from the New Testament gives us a vivid picture of Roman night life in the first Christian century. Paul described these scenes, writing with dreadful seriousness to the Christians in Rome and warning them of what their habits were leading to.

OUR LORD'S words are quoted in this lesson also because they put the moral responsibility for many such conditions precisely where it belongs, namely, on the parents. Jesus put a child at the center of his religious teaching.

It has been found in a survey among college students that when both parents use alcoholic beverages, 86 per cent of the sons and daughters use liquor. Where only one parent uses alcoholic beverage, 66 per cent of the students use liquor. Among students from homes where both parents are total abstainers, only 35 per cent of their children drink.

Conservative estimates hold that one in 16 persons who start to drink become drunkards, although a more realistic appraisal would probably make it one in 10.

PARENTS who serve liquor in their homes doubtless feel that by surrounding drinking customs with a wholesome environment and being sensible about drinking, they influence their children to be moderate. Mounting evidence, however, indicates that nobody can be taught to go easy on a habit-forming drug.

The drinking situation in America is extremely serious. It is contributing to juvenile delinquency, divorce, and crime to an appalling degree. We should, above all else, avoid Pharisaism and recall that what we are to pass judgment on is a national situation and not the people involved therein.

This problem, like all human problems, is essentially spiritual in nature. The Bible teaches that our bodies are the temples of the Holy Spirit, that every man is in a measure his brothers' keeper, and that only spiritual values have consequence when the final count is all in.

Panel Says U.N. 'Best Peace Hope'

The United Nations is the best man-made barrier to a third world war, a panel of Lincoln men agreed in a discussion sponsored by the University of Nebraska Council for World Affairs to observe United Nations week.

Panel members were Elsworth DuTeau, Lincoln businessman; Dr. E. N. Anderson, NU history professor; Hugo Srb, clerk of the state legislature, and Dr. C. Vin White, pastor of First Presbyterian Church.

DuTeau declared that the U.S. should "give everything we've got in spirit, capital and ability to preserve the peace," while Dr. White observed that in the U.N. there is opportunity for expression of our feeling of concern for one another.

Exclusive double-wrapped Aluminum Package keeps

GOOD LUCK fresher and better tasting than any other margarine!

Read the proof! In flavor tests, new Reynolds Wrap kept GOOD LUCK fresh as the day it was made—even after 8 weeks! Only GOOD LUCK has it!

NOW YOU CAN SERVE perfect table spread every time—fresh, sweet and delicious as the day it was packed! Just look for GOOD LUCK margarine in this revolutionary new Reynolds aluminum foil package.

GOOD LUCK is the only margarine—in fact, the only table spread—so completely protected.

Have you ever noticed an "off" taste in your margarine? Then you'll be interested in the tests we made to prove that this new package really protects the pure, delicate flavor of GOOD LUCK.

Fresh and Sweet After Eight Weeks

We put our new double foil-wrapped GOOD LUCK in a refrigerator along with other table spreads wrapped in ordinary waxed cartons. Next to them we placed sliced onions—and the strongest cheese we could find.

At the end of eight weeks, GOOD LUCK was still just as fresh and sweet as the day it was made! The new aluminum package had protected the flavor of GOOD LUCK completely against outside odors. But the other margarines in the usual waxed cartons had lost flavor and picked up odors very quickly, some after as little as six days.

WE TESTED GOOD LUCK in its new aluminum package by storing it in the refrigerator next to strong cheese and onions for 8 weeks. When the package was opened, GOOD LUCK's flavor, completely protected, was fresh and delicious as ever!

How Reynolds Aluminum Keeps GOOD LUCK Fresh

First, we wrap each quarter-pound print in pure Reynolds Wrap aluminum foil. Then we put the quarter pounds in a waxed carton for extra protection. And, finally, we seal the whole carton in shiny aluminum foil.

As a result, GOOD LUCK not only tastes delicious when we wrap it, but stays fresher and better tasting than any other margarine.

Although GOOD LUCK is the only margarine wrapped this way, it doesn't cost you one penny more than other quality margarines. And, you will be interested to know, many nutritional experts agree that GOOD LUCK is every bit as nourishing as "you-know-what."

GOOD LUCK's Challenge to You

We guarantee you'll like GOOD LUCK in its new aluminum package better than any other spread you've ever tasted—or we'll refund your money. If you don't agree, just drop a line to Lever Brothers, New York 22, N. Y., enclosing the guarantee panel from the GOOD LUCK package, and we'll send you every penny you paid.

Keep GOOD LUCK in Your Refrigerator —It Always Spreads Easily!

The delicate flavor of this fine quality margarine is perishable. That's why we carefully refrigerate GOOD LUCK during processing—also while awaiting shipment, and in transit.

If you want to enjoy GOOD LUCK at its delicious best, always keep it in your refrigerator. You'll find GOOD LUCK spreads smoothly even when cold.

Incidentally, we managed to accomplish this easy spreading without sacrificing one tiny bit of GOOD LUCK's delicious flavor. Wonderful GOOD LUCK not only spreads easily, but stays fresher and better tasting than any other margarine!

You can't tell the difference between GOOD LUCK margarine and "you-know-what."

Dean to Korea On Peace Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — Special Envoy Arthur Dean has left for Korea to determine when, where and on what conditions the Far Eastern Communist powers are willing to negotiate about a Korean peace settlement.

Dean, with a staff of eight advisors and assistants, is flying via Tokyo and Seoul to Panmunjom. He will talk with U.S. military and diplomatic leaders in Tokyo Friday and with President Syngman Rhee and U.S. officials in Seoul Saturday. He will go to Panmunjom to meet with Red Chinese and North Korean representatives Monday.

In preparation for the mission, Dean met Tuesday with representatives of the 15 other U.N. members which fought in the Korean War. He will be representing all of them in his talks with the Reds on arrangements for a Korean political conference.

The Reds have served notice they will again insist on inclusion of neutral nations.

Things Can Get Worse

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Prison guards have to be ready for anything, so they weren't too surprised when a 36-year-old parolee appeared and said:

"My in-laws are driving me nuts. I'd rather be in jail."

They put Lee Roy Javine into a San Quentin cell for the night—while they checked his parole record.

Crete Man Gives Painting to State

A painting of the old Crete press building, reputed to be the first weekly press building in the United States has been presented to the Nebraska State Historical Society

The gift was made by C D Blauvelt, former editor and publisher of the Crete News

The painting was done by Jack Tobias, Crete artist, for the 50th anniversary and re-dedication of the press building in 1935 It is done in oils and measures approximately two and one-half by three feet

The press building now about 68 years old is still standing at its original location in Tuxedo Park It was built when Chautauqua programs were at the height of popularity Blauvelt said It is one of the few Chautauqua buildings which survived For the last 30 years it has been used as a private residence.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

BY ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D.Sc.

1. Yes, explains Prof. Lester Kirkendall, University of Oregon. If the father takes no care of the child, it develops different feelings toward both father and mother. It soon notices how the parents behave toward each other — their demonstrations of affection or lack of them. Yes, every day parents are making good or poor husbands and wives of their children.

2. Dr. A. R. Kern, Temple University, says that a suicide often reads about other suicides and this prompts him or her to attempt the act. One-fourth of our suicides are temporarily insane or depressed. Suicide has increased, notwithstanding our present high standards of living. It now ranks 11th in the nation's death rate—25,000 suicides annually.

3. Yes. According to Dr. Edward Podolsky, author of "Encyclopedia of Aberrations," anxiety is a sort of vague fear of death—of being destroyed without any possibility of defense. Anxiety differs from fear in that fear has a definite object—loss of money, loved ones, etc. "Anxiety is slow poison," upsetting all bodily functions. Dr. Podolsky says the best self-remedy is relaxation.

POINTS FOR PARENTS

BY EDITH THOMAS WALLACE

Not This This

Father: "Can't you kids be quiet? I want to read."

Mother: "Quit fussing at them, Dad. A living room is supposed to be for the whole family, isn't it?"

Son: "Bill and I keep some of our books and quiet toys here and these are our table and chairs. We use our noisy toys outdoors or in our own rooms."

Accepted family rules make possible the use of the living room by the whole family without allowing children to disregard the comfort of senior family members.
